Pursuant to Practice Book Sections 11-20, 11-20A, 25-59 and 25-59A the time, date, scope and, except for court closure orders, duration of the order shall be reduced to writing, signed by the judicial authority, and entered by the clerk in the court file. This form should be used for that purpose.

In addition to signing this form, the judicial authority must also comply with the other requirements of the above rules, which include articulating the overriding interest being protected, specifying its findings underlying the order, and either ordering that a transcript of its decision be included in the court file or preparing a memorandum setting forth the reasons for its order. When sealing an entire court file, the judicial authority must also comply with Sections 11-20A(f) and 25-59A(f).

Instructions to Clerk for Civil and Family Cases: Complete this form upon issuance of the court order and IMMEDIATELY enter it in the court file. Use Section I for an order sealing document(s) or a file. Use Section II for an order limiting disclosure. Use Section III for an order closing a courtroom. Use Section IV for an order granting permission to use pseudonyms. The judicial authority and clerk must sign Section V. Code this form using the appropriate docket legend(s) for the section(s) of the form completed.

Additional instructions to Clerk for Civil Cases only: If Sections I, II or III are completed, IMMEDIATELY post a copy of this form on a bulletin board adjacent to the clerk's office and accessible to the public and fax the form IMMEDIATELY to Court Operations at (860) 263-2773 for posting on the judicial branch website.

ORDER

ORDER REGARDING:

07/12/2022 142.00 MOTION TO SEAL DOCUMENT

The foregoing, having been heard by the Court, is hereby:

ORDER: GRANTED

Pursuant to Section 11-20A of the Connecticut Practice Book, the court finds that:

(1) The document contains records statutorily protected under Connecticut Statute section 46b-124(b) ; and

(2) The privacy interests in the information in the document overrides the public's interest in viewing the material.

Therefore, it is ordered that:

(1) the document or its attached exhibits or both containing records statutorily protected under Connecticut Statute section 46b-124(b) is or are sealed; and that

(2) Assistant Attorney General Belforti shall submit a redacted copy of the document within 10 days of this order.

(3) Assistant Attorney General Belforti shall send an unredacted copy to all counsel of record. Attorneys Williams and Mayo Goodrich must maintain the documents as confidential and not further disclose or disseminate. They may share the unredacted documents with their clients. However, their clients may not further disseminate and must maintain the records as confidential. Attorneys Williams and Mayo Goodrich must advise their clients of this court order and that the failure to abide by this order could subject the party or counsel to a contempt finding.

(4) At the conclusion of this case, all unredacted copies of said documents must be returned to Attorney Hardy-Massaro's counsel and/or other Attorneys Williams and Mayo Goodrich and their clients must file a statement under oath that said documents were shredded and destroyed.

The original documents containing the personal identifying information will be retained as a sealed document in the court file, unless the court orders otherwise.

Judicial Notice (JDNO) was sent regarding this order.
