

DOCKET NO: LLI-CV21-5014019-S : SUPERIOR COURT
JON GOODWIN : J.D. OF LITCHFIELD
V. : AT TORRINGTON
RAYMOND J. MILOT, ET AL : FEBRUARY 13, 2026

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR DEFAULT FOR WILLFUL FAILURE TO APPEAR FOR DEPOSITION

The Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to enter a default against Defendant Raymond J. Milot, Jr. for willful failure to appear at his properly noticed deposition, and for related relief pursuant to Practice Book §§ 13-14 and 13-30.

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On January 12, 2026, Plaintiff served a Notice of Deposition scheduling Defendant’s deposition for February 13, 2026, at 9:30 a.m. (Exhibit A).
2. The deposition was noticed more than thirty (30) days in advance.
3. On January 27, 2026, Defendant filed a Motion for Protective Order (Entry No. 182) seeking to delay the deposition.
4. On February 10, 2026, this Court denied Defendant’s Motion for Protective Order and confirmed that depositions shall proceed under the existing scheduling order (Entry No. 182.10; Exhibit B).
5. On February 12, 2026, at 1:56 p.m. — less than twenty-four hours before the scheduled deposition — Defendant’s counsel, Robert Salerno, through his staff, notified Plaintiff that counsel would not attend and sought to reschedule “after March.” Exhibit C.
6. Later that same day, counsel reiterated that Defendant would not appear. (Exhibit D-1 – D-5).

7. Defendant did not file a motion to continue, did not obtain a stay, and did not seek emergency relief from the Court.

8. On February 13, 2026, at 9:30 a.m., Plaintiff appeared with the court reporter and videographer. Defendant did not appear. (Exhibit E – Certificate of Nonappearance).

9. Plaintiff incurred deposition costs of $638.10. (Exhibit F – Invoice).

10. Defendant also failed to produce documents requested in the Notice of Deposition. (Exhibit G – Notice of Deposition Document Requests).

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Practice Book § 13-30(g) provides that if a party fails to appear for a properly noticed deposition, the Court may enter orders pursuant to § 13-14.

Practice Book § 13-14 authorizes the Court to impose sanctions, including:

- Orders compelling compliance
- Award of expenses and attorney's fees
- Preclusion of testimony
- Striking of pleadings
- Entry of default
- Such other orders as are just

Default is appropriate where the noncompliance is willful, in bad faith, or part of a pattern of obstruction, and where lesser sanctions would be ineffective.

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Failure to Appear Was Willful

Defendant:

- Received timely notice more than 30 days in advance (Exhibit A).

- Sought to delay the deposition via Motion for Protective Order.
- Had that motion denied by the Court (Exhibit B).
- Then, less than 24 hours before the deposition, unilaterally refused to appear (Exhibits C and D).

No motion for continuance was filed.

No court authorization excused attendance.

This was intentional nonappearance following denial of relief.

B. Defendant Disregarded the Court's Scheduling Authority

The Court denied Defendant's protective order and confirmed that depositions were to proceed. (Exhibit B).

Permitting unilateral refusal after denial of a protective order would undermine the Court's authority over discovery scheduling.

C. Prejudice to Plaintiff

Plaintiff:

- Appeared for the deposition in good faith.
- Incurred $638.10 in expenses (Exhibit F).
- Was deprived of discovery essential to trial preparation.

The prejudice is immediate and ongoing.

D. Lesser Sanctions Would Be Ineffective

Defendant has already:

- Attempted to delay the deposition by motion;
- Failed to appear after that motion was denied;

- Failed to produce requested documents.

Under these circumstances, entry of default is warranted.

III. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Enter default against Defendant Raymond J. Milot, Jr. pursuant to Practice Book § 13-14;
2. Award Plaintiff $638.10 in deposition costs (Exhibit F);
3. In the alternative, if default is not entered, issue an order:
 - a. Compelling Defendant to appear for deposition within seven (7) days on a date certain;
 - b. Requiring full document production prior to deposition;
 - c. Ordering reimbursement of deposition costs;
 - d. Providing that failure to comply shall result in immediate default without further hearing.
4. Grant such other relief as justice requires.

Respectfully submitted,

THE PLAINTIFF,

Appearing pro se and as co-counsel with:

John R. Williams, Esq.
Counsel for Plaintiff

Good afternoon, Mr. Goodwin,

I hope all is well. I am writing regarding the deposition scheduled for 02/13/2026. Considering the Court's recent ruling on our motion and Attorney Salerno's trial obligations in another matter, we will need to reschedule the deposition. We would be most available for a date and time after March. Please let me know what your availability is so we may coordinate a mutually convenient date.

Additionally, Attorney Salerno has requested an opportunity to speak with you, as you may be needed as a witness in the matter of Christine Jowdy v. Raymond Milot. Please advise when you would be available for a telephone call, and I will coordinate accordingly.

I hope to talk soon.

Mr. Salerno,

- A. The deposition will proceed tomorrow because: 1) you could have notified me regarding you schedule weeks ago and at least as soon as the judge entered her order; 2) I do not want to further delay filing the motion to compel Mr. Milot's production of documents and 3) waiting until after March is ridiculous.
- B. If Mr. Milot does not attend tomorrow, I will file a motion for sanctions.
- C. Immediately provide me the documents requested in the deposition notice.
- D. My rate for consultation and expert witness services is $2,000 per hour. I require a $24,000 retainer. Say the word and I will forward you a retention agreement.

Good Afternoon Mr. Goodwin,

Due to the fact the Court denied our motion for protective order two days ago, has indicated depositions need to be completed by June 30, 2026, and the fact that I am unavailable tomorrow, I cannot attend the deposition. There is more than ample time to reschedule and I am will to work with you to find a mutually acceptable date. I have let our client know that the documents you have requested are to be gathered. I will inform you as to when they will be made available.

Regarding your testimony, I am not seeking your testimony as an expert, but instead as a witness. Should you not wish to discuss the matter prior to trial, that is entirely your prerogative.

Sincerely,

Mr. Salerno,

You have no excuse. This deposition has been planned for a long time. You've known about the judge's decision for several days. To inform me you cannot attend because of a scheduling conflict at the last minute is a pretext to delay me from conducting discovery critical to addressing issues that must go before the court immediately.

I'm really tired of you and your law partners' malarkey. You and Steven Levy are trying to hoodwink Judge Roraback, too. That's going to backfire on both of you spectacularly.

You still have not provided me the discovery information I'm entitled to. INCLUDING THE VIDEO REBECCA GOODRICH TOOK OF HER AND A MALE ACCOMPLICE ASSAULTING ME AT THE NEW MILFORD HOME DEPOT.

Your client will attend the deposition tomorrow or I will seek emergency relief from the court.

1 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the
2 beginning of the remote video deposition of
3 Raymond Milot in the matter of Jon Goodwin --
4 Goodwin, et al, vs. Raymond Milot, Jr.
5 Today's date is February 13, 2026. The time
6 on the monitor is 9:31 a.m. My name is Brian
7 Capouch. The court reporter is Tina Landau.
8 We represent Brandon Legal Tech. The
9 videotaping will continue until all parties
10 agree to go off the record. The court
11 reporter will now give a statement in regards
12 to this video deposition after which she will
13 swear in the witness.

14 THE REPORTER: Usually I do what I
15 need to do but is the witness going to be 16 here or are we just putting a statement on 17 the record?

18 MR. GOODWIN: We are going to be
19 putting a statement on the record.

20 THE REPORTER: Okay. Counsel, I'm
21 all set.

22 MR. SALERNO: Thank you very much.
23 Mr. Goodwin, if you'd like to proceed and
24 then I will respond to the statement.

25 MR. GOODWIN: Yes. This is Jon

1 Goodwin. I am representing myself pro se and
2 this deposition was scheduled over 30 days
3 ago. Mr. Salerno told me yesterday that he
4 wasn't going to be available but that was
5 unacceptable. He had plenty of time to do
6 that and we're here to put this on the record
7 so that I can take this before the Court in a
8 motion to compel or a motion for sanction so
9 that we can get this deposition to happen. I
10 understand, Mr. Salerno, that your client is 11 not going to show. Is that correct?

12 MR. SALERNO: Unfortunately at this
13 point in time as I indicated to Mr. Goodwin
14 yesterday after the Court had ruled that the 15 protective order that I had filed was denied
16 that we were unavailable for today's date as 17 a result of my prior commitments to other
18 courthouses and other cases. I had elected
19 to tell Mr. Goodwin that there were two
20 specific weeks that I would make myself
21 available in approximately two weeks. My
22 understanding is that depositions are to be
23 completed in June of 2026, obviously sometime
24 in the future. Mr. Goodwin instead has
25 elected to move forward with this and what I

1 believe to be potentially the run up of the
2 costs for either himself to then be passed on
3 to Mr. Milot. Unfortunately at this time, as
4 I've indicated, I am unavailable. I am in
5 the car on my way to court for another matter
6 and Mr. Goodwin has elected to go forward
7 even though I notified him yesterday and
8 instead of canceling, we have decided -- he
9 has decided do go forward, so with that, my
10 statement is completed and I would ask that 11 we go off the record.

12 MR. GOODWIN: Yes. I have one more
13 thing to add. Mr. Salerno's office told me
14 that in an email that he would be available
15 and we could do this after March meaning
16 April forward so therefore what Mr. Salerno
17 has just said is inaccurate. He has no email
18 documentation that what he just said is 19 accurate. This is all fresh today that we
20 could do this in two weeks. It wasn't stated
21 yesterday so thank you very much for putting
22 this on the record. Brian and Tina, I
23 appreciate it, and please forward me the --
24 the relevant links so that I can download
25 these materials.

1 MR. SALERNO: Thank you very much.

2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: I'm going to go
3 off the record then. The time is 9:34.

4 MR. SALERNO: Thank you very much.
5 Have a good day.
