Schedule A

1. I believe testimony from Noah Milot is necessary because:

Noah Milot is a central percipient witness with direct, firsthand knowledge of the events forming the basis of Plaintiff's claims, including the alleged incidents of assault, coordinated conduct, and the creation and dissemination of false allegations. The Complaint specifically alleges that Noah Milot personally participated in and witnessed key events, including physical altercations, communications with Defendant Raymond J. Milot, and interactions that were later used to generate or support false reports of abuse.

His testimony is necessary to establish the sequence of events, the nature of his interactions with Plaintiff and other Defendants, statements made by Defendant Raymond J. Milot (including threats and intent), and the extent to which Noah Milot participated in or was influenced in actions relating to the alleged scheme to provoke incidents and create evidence for use in false accusations. His testimony is further necessary to assess credibility, intent, and coordination among Defendants and to authenticate relevant communications and events.

Schedule B

2. I believe that Noah Milot will testify that (state what you believe will be said in court):

Noah Milot is expected to testify, based on his personal knowledge, that:

- He engaged in multiple physical altercations with Plaintiff, including kicking and attempting harmful contact, as alleged in the Complaint;

- He participated in or was present during incidents that were later used to support allegations of abuse against Plaintiff;
